Dear Henri:

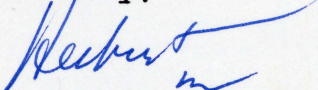

How wonderful to hear from you! I have learned long ago that there are exceptional people in the world. You are one of the most exceptional.

Of course, I did not read the recording date because I listen to the music while I work and without glasses I can't see the type that small.

It is a pity I am out of the music publishing business for several years now, or we certainly would be happy to publish your book. If you are having great difficulties, let me know and perhaps I can do something to help you, but quite honestly, nobody is making money publishing music books.

Evelyn joins me in sending you and yours the best for a great year.

Sincerely,

Herbert R. Axelrod
