Dear Henri:

I cannot tell you how wonderful it was to see you!! I hope that we will be able to see each other more than once every five or ten years.

In any case, I have been listening to your tapes and they are exciting. People just do not play that wonderfully anymore!!

I am very happy that Jeff Nissim, who runs Musical Heritage Society and who is a very, very efficient and intelligent young man, has decided to take an interest in you as an artist and in your cassette in particular.

I am enclosing his letter of May 15th and I suggest that you contact him directly.

Sincerely,

Herbert R. Axelrod
