

2-24-1981

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (easton)

Eve Aston

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Aston, Eve, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (easton)" (1981). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 101.
http://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/101

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (easton)

Description

This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Eve Aston, February 24, 1981, death, husband, wife, camaraderie, love

9 Balliol Ave.
Chingford.
London E4.
England.

Dearest Emmy + Henri

How thoughtful of you to write such a kind letter of comfort to me on Tom's sad death.

As you know it wasn't unexpected - but when it really happened after fighting so courageously for a year .. I found I wasn't as brave as I truly thought I would be. He was such a fine person to live with, funny, clever, and a dear friend - a husband of 30 years ..and I miss him.

Your letter helped such a lot to ease the emptiness of our grief, not only of myself and Susan, but of his dear mother who is now rather old, and the rest of his family.

As a close friend said " A life that touches the hearts of everyone goes on forever - and perhaps he was needed elsewhere."

I like to think so.

With grateful thank you's. - and many happy memories of friends + events in your lovely California. - I shall miss you all so much. Please do keep in touch. Please.

Tenderly and with love. Gut