To D. Liechstein

Dearest,

Well here is the promised letter.

In the first place do you miss me?

We went out job-hunting this morning I doubt very much whether I might be able to land anything but I do hope so. I really like the town of Toledo.

Gosh I just realized that I've written this backwards. Remember one time you wrote me one backwards, I was on the radio to-day, & on the man-on-the-street program.

He asked me if I was married and I said no and he asked me if I had a boy friend and I said yes, and he asked me about movie stars.

O.K. my, but I wasn't nervous.

Ada also talked too. It was over W.T. O.L.

Have you got any relatives here that

2.
have phones? maybe I could call them
up for you and give them your regards.

Becky has a nice place here. This is a nice neighborhood. She pays $42
a month for four rooms.

Have you gone many places lately?
Are you going to Isabel's to night,
Have you seen any of the kids?
Gosh, honey, I can't seem to find very much to say.

I can't say exactly when I'll be home. I'll write more definitely later.

Regards,

yours,
Evelyn.

How are you doing sheels?
Did you go Unping last night?
Regards - " ~~Q~~ D "
