Dear Henri,

What a lovely surprise came in the mail! That is a truly handsome silk scarf and I shall enjoy it for years to come, always remembering the good friend who brought it to me from far away China!

I was terribly sorry to miss the evening for Henri the 80th. I know you were surrounded with wonderful friends for a truly delightful, and rich evening. I was on my own podium, teaching my class.

In a few moments, James and I are taking off for lovely Hawaii for the holidays. I will be "singing for my supper" with six seminars on three islands for Hilton, but hope to get a little free time for energy building. You know how it's done. That's how we keep going, even ahead of the young ones!

All the best, as ever, and a very wonderful
New Year!

Blessings,
