This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Cold War and Interwar Periods at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bette J. Barto Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Summary
This collection contains 139 correspondence from Maj. Bette J. Barto, USAFE to her parents while serving as a nurse during the late 1950s and 1960s. Also included are three photographs, one special orders document, and one marriage license. In several cases, Bette refers to her parents as "Lizzie" and "Hugh Elmer," or simply "Elmer." Three letters from 1961 or 1962 are undated and placed in a separate folder.

Back at work—
I had a permanent as soon as I got off duty yesterday afternoon. It looks nice and it really feels better.
Dent has done a complete about face in behavior. He has chewed TV antenna 4 days in a row and today he chewed the TV plug off—I had it unplugged, thank goodness. Now I have to unplug everything each am. I was afraid this would happen when Ray left.

Marie’s cat gave him fleas too; so we have had a tussle with flea spray & soap & two baths already this week—he is so fatique when we have him—he’s all new experience.

I’ll send Uncle Ray’s letter, Mom—I wish he were coming to visit—pills won’t cure everything.

Gotta quit—will try again later—this is too distracting here.

I love you,
Beile
