Dear Dorothy,

Well today is the 6th and only 9 more months till I'm 21. tomorrow I get 11 months in. last nite we got about 6 inches of snow and today it was pretty warm but tonite it's cold again.

my ever sharp is out of lead and this ball point does a poor job on this paper. But you <sup>can</sup> figure out most of it. If you can't you're not missing a thing.

If you want to know what's going on where I am, all you have to do is follow the news on what the 2nd division is doing. It's about all the same along the front lately.

These officers around here seem to think it almost over now. I hope they are right.

I guess there isn't much more to say. I sure hope I get mail soon.

I've been doing a lot of strong thinking about what I'd do when I get home. Chances are I wouldn't stay home long because I get in a fight with the folks in no time flat. It was bad enough while I was home the last time. It might be worse when I get back this time.

You and me will just take off for some place and be by our selves.

Will Goodbye for now kid. Take care.

not too many wrinkles now and be sure
and write real often.

All my love

Joe
