Darlingst,

Well, I'm sitting here waiting for your phone call, I shall be dissapointed if I don't hear from you, but Darling that's what we have to expect now. So if you can't phone I shall try to understand.

Ida was over for supper to-night she brought two huge steaks. So we had Steaks, French Fried potatoes, sliced Tomatoes, corn, coffee + cake and it was swell. We sat down to eat at 5:00. I took a shower and then we got the supper. I got two birthday cards to-day. One from your mother + one from your Dad. It wasn't that nice, each one sent a different card. Honey, I think you have wonderful folks. It's no wonder that you are so wonderful. I got a phone call from my Dad and he said that Frances + Sol and the kids were out. I asked her to come over I didn't want to leave her because I'm afraid I shall miss your call. So perhaps she will come over.

Ida told me that Sally Rabeik was sent to Camp Hood, Texas, he is going to be a radio operator in the tank corps.

Lena was supposed to come over to-night but I suppose she isn't coming. It's 8:30 now. Tommy Dorsey is on the radio now.

To-morrow night I'm going to club. It's going to be at Dalley's house. It will be the first time I have gone out to spend the evening since you left.

Do you know how I always write your letters? I sit in your big chair with the Spiegel catalogue on my lap.

Darling, everything in the room just reminds me of you. your ashtray

sitting next to me (which is empty now) Ricky's picture smiling at me just as he used to when we were to-gether, and which he will be doing when when we are to-gether again.

On the radio now they are playing a medaly of songs of 1936. and it is ~~dedicated~~ dedicated to the Sweethearts of 1936. and that's just what were, only we still are sweethearts and we always shall be.

Darling, I just wish I knew where you are. It certainly has me all a dither.
I'll I shall know soon enough.

Well, sweetheart, I get sleepy so early now. It's only 9:30. That's how long it takes me to write to you. Usually
I can write your letter in a few minutes.
I mean I can rattle your letters off
in no time.

I love you, my darling, and wish you were right here next to me

so I could kiss you good-night.
