
Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence

CAWL Archives: Second World War

3-25-1943

1943-03-25, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1943-03-25, Jack to Evabel" (1943). Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence. 120.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/120

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

Jack P. Bell; Evabel Bell; March 25, 1943; World War, 1939 - 1945; World War II; World War Two; United States; War and Civilization – History – 20th Century; United States. Army; United States. Army. 78th Infantry Division; United States. Regimental histories 78th Signal Company; United States. Regimental histories 78th Infantry Division; Elyria (Ohio) – History – 20th Century; Women - History - 20th Century; Nineteen Forties; World War, 1939 – 1945 – Soldiers; World War, 1939 – 1945 – Women; Camp Butner (N.C.) - History - 20th Century; World War, 1939 – 1945 – Camp Butner (N.C.)

Keywords

March, 1943; 1943; United States; Camp Butner, N.C.; Elyria, Ohio; army; soldiers; troops; signal corps; infantry; correspondence; postal service; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; education; communications; radio; leisure; rules and regulations; quarantine; aviation; air corps; food; cooking; war work; employment; music; songs; friendship; gifts; gifts from home; weather; sunny weather; nice weather; landscapes; military draft; camaraderie; military unit

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1943-03-25_003

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

Priv. J. P. Bell

78th Sig. Co. 78th Div

Camp Butner, N. C.

A. P. O. 78

Free

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

Mar. 25, '43
Camp Butner, N.C.

Dearest Sweetheart,

It's 6 o'clock evening. A radio class coming up at 7:30 so this gives me about as long a breather as I've had since I've been in this camp. Let's keep our fingers crossed, honey. Just about the time you think you have a minute to yourself the officers get other ideas.

Got my first mail today. A card from Genevieve. She sure is pleased that I'm so near. After my quarantine is up if I'm lucky I may be able to get a few hours leave on a Sunday, and get over there.

I heard today that Signal Corp is the second best branch in the army, Air Corp being first.

My newly acquired watch has been running true ever since I set it the other day. When I look at it I try and pine trees, and off in the distance - big hills.

Do you still like the venetian blinds as well as ever, dear? They sure looked good to me.

This radio school I have to go to tonite is a class where they try to teach you Morse code. They set them up seven letters at a time, it's something that sort of has to sneak up on you. It's just learning the alphabet all over again. Only harder because in the alphabet it's just one thing you have to remember like A or B or C. Here you have to remember several things. So many dots and dashes for each letter.

There are four of us from Ohio right in a row in the barracks. One fellow from Cleveland, one from Toledo, one fromiffin, and myself. I'm the only one from Oberlin drop board in the signal Co.

Imagine what you are doing - same time. Like this morning as I was standing in chow line, five after seven I just sort of figured you were just starting your days work. How's it coming, darling? Someone has a radio playing upstairs. Guess what they're playing. Our old theme song - "Stardust!"

Honey, you'll have to say hello to our friends for me. Tell them I'm getting along fine, and mention to the ones who gave me gifts that I sure appreciate them, and they're coming in handy now. I'll have time to write them in a few weeks, but right now I can't.

This has been a real nice day. Bright and sunny with the wind just a little cool. Are you getting some decent weather? The scenery around here is pretty. Lots of

The rest of the fellows have scattered.
Most of them are in infantry companies.
I haven't seen them since Monday.

I'm going to say so long now, honey.
There's a fellow going out to mail letters
so maybe you'll get this Saturday. Here's hoping, I'll write again as soon as I can.

Your husband,

Jack

P.S. I love you

XXXXXX

[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE MARCH 1943 – APRIL 1943 #3]

[Page 1 – Envelope]

Pvt. J.P. Bell

Free

78th. Sig. Co. 78 th. Div

[[Image: Military post-mark

Camp Butner, N.C.

stamp, with print text

A.P.O 78

“CAMP BUTNER / N.C”

encircling date:

“MAR 26 / 1 PM / 1943”]]

Mrs. Jack Bell

345 W. River St.

Elyria, Ohio

[Page 2 – Letter]

Mar. 25, '43

Camp Butner, N.C.

Dearest Sweetheart,

It's 6 o'clock evening. A radio class coming up at 7:30 so this gives me about as long a breather as I've had since I've been in this camp. Let's keep our fingers crossed, honey. Just about the time you think you have a minute to yourself the officers get other ideas.

Got my first mail today. A card from Genevieve. She sure is pleased that I'm so near. After my quarantine is up if I'm lucky I may be able to get a few hours leave on a Sunday, and get over there.

I heard today that Signal Corp is the second best branch in the army. Air Corp being first.

My newly acquired watch has been running true ever since I set it the other day. When I look at it I try and pine trees, and off in the distance – big hills.

[Page 3 – Letter continued]

- 3 -

Do you still like the venetian blinds as well as ever, dear? They sure looked good to me.

This radio school I have to go to tonite is a class where they try to teach you Morse Code. They set them up seven letters at a time. It's something that sort of has to sneak up on you. It's just learning the alphabet all over again. Only harder because in the alphabet it's just one thing you have to remember like A or B or C. Here you have to remember several things. So many dots and dashes for each letter.

There are four of us from Ohio right in a row in the barracks. One fellow from Cleveland, one from Toledo, one from Tiffin, and myself. I'm the only one from Oberlin draft board in the Signal Co.

- 2 -

imagine what you are doing – same time.

Like this morning as I was standing in chow line, five after seven I just sort of figured you were just starting your days work.

How's it coming, darling? Someone has a radio playing upstairs. Guess what they're playing. Our old theme song, "Stardust."

Honey, you'll have to say, hello to our friends for me. Tell them I'm getting along fine, and mention to the ones who gave me gifts that I sure appreciate them, and they're coming in handy now. I'll have time to write them in a few weeks, but right now I can't.

This has been a real nice day. Bright and sunny with the wind just a little cool. Are you getting some decent weather? The scenery around here is pretty. Lots of

[Page 4 – Letter continued]

- 4 -

The rest of the fellows have scattered.
Most of them are in infantry companies.
I haven't seen them since Monday.

I'm going to say So Long now, honey.
They're[sic] a fellow going out to mail letters
so maybe you'll get this Saturday. Here's hoping. I'll write again as soon as I can.

Your husband,
[[Jack]]

P.S. I love you.

X X X X X