Mr. David Bar-Illan
924 West End Avenue
New York, New York 10025

O
Dear David:

I am deeply touched by your warmhearted letter. How can I do less in these horrible times? My letter to TIME was, of course, truncated. If I can find a copy of the original version, I shall enclose it in this letter for mailing.

P
I have always wanted to have you back with us after your wonderful performance here but, as you know, I have very few opportunities for presenting soloists. Nevertheless, I am hoping that within the next year or two we can make music together again.

I keep getting news of your triumphs, and rejoice with you.

With warmest good wishes from Emmy and me to you and Beverly.

Y
Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
