

About the Authors

Paige Gulley

Paige Gulley recently received Bachelor's degrees in both History and French from Chapman University. While attending, she was an active member in the Pride of Chapman pep band. This year, she served as vice president of Chapman University's chapter of Phi Alpha Theta as well as senior editor of Voces Novae. Paige will be returning to Chapman next year to pursue her Master's in War and Society. She hopes to go on to earn a Doctorate in either History or Postcolonial Studies.

Lara Jacobson

Lara Jacobson is a recent 2018 graduate from Chapman University, earning Bachelor's degrees in both History and Integrated Educational Studies. While she attended, she played on the Chapman Women's Soccer team all four years and was a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority for three years. Lara was born and raised in Washington but will be returning back to Orange, California to continue her education in Chapman's War and Society Master's program. She hopes to go into international relations where she can help, educate, and learn from others all around the world.

Robert Del Toro

Robert (Robbie) Del Toro is a recent graduate of Chapman University, where he earned his Bachelor's degree in History. While at Chapman, Robbie served as president of university's chapters of both Phi Alpha Theta and the National Society of Leadership and Success. A native of southern California, Robbie will be returning to Chapman next year to pursue a Master's degree in War and Society. After earning his Master's, he plans to attend law school.

Antonio Franco

Antonio Franco is a graduate of Chapman University where he majored in History. He was born on February 29, 1996 in Panorama City, California. He was raised in Newhall, California with his parents and two brothers. During his time at Chapman he served as the Treasurer for the Alpha Mu Gamma chapter of Phi Alpha Theta. Now that he has graduated he plans to join the U.S. military and work in either the intelligence service or be a pilot.

Connell Murphy

Connell Murphy was born July 5th, 1996 in West Hartford, Connecticut.. He spent time in Switzerland before moving to California. He is a recent graduate from Chapman University, and received a Bachelor's Degree in History and minors in both Philosophy and Computer Science, and is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

Natalie Figueroa

Natalie Figueroa is a 2018 Chapman University graduate earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature and Holocaust Studies. She also served as senior editor of Voces Novae for the 2018 volume. She was born and raised in Whitter, California and hopes to continue her education in the future by studying library or museum studies.

Connor Kridle

Connor Kridle, the author of “Polityka Historiczna: Debating Holocaust Remembrance in Poland,” is a 2018 graduate of Chapman University. Connor graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelors of Arts in Political Science and a minor in Holocaust History and was also a Cheverton Award finalist. His research interests include American constitutional law, the intersection of religion and American politics, and Holocaust history. Connor will take a gap year to pursue research and writing before applying to law school.