

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

3-28-1943

1943-03-28, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1943-03-28, Jack to Evabel" (1943). Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection. 124.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/124

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1943-03-28, Jack to Evabel

Keywords

March, 1943; 1943; United States; Camp Butner, N.C.; Elyria, Ohio; army; soldiers; troops; signal corps; infantry; correspondence; postal service; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; recreation and entertainment; weather; cool weather; sunny weather; clothing; uniform; friendship; camaraderie; military unit; assignment; examination; money; finances; budget; war bonds; homesickness; employment; war work; job; marching and drill; training

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1943-03-28_005

Pvt. J. P. Bell
78th. Sig. Co. 78th. Div.
Camp Butner, N. C.
A. P. O. 78

Free

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

March 28, '43

Camp Butner, N.C.

Good Morning Sweetheart,

9 o'clock Sunday morning. Bet
you're still sleeping. We get to sleep late on Sunday morning. Till 7 o'clock.
Aint that sompin'?

This has certainly been a busy week.
You could probably tell that by my letters.
I wrote them on the fly. A little here, and a little there. Today I believe is all mine.

I haven't had any mail yet. I suppose I'll be getting one from you tomorrow. Will that be nice. I'm going to try and write one every day even if it's just a short one.

There's a crap game going on in here
already. Has been for about a half hour.
That's sucker stuff. I don't see where any of no fellows - making the money we're making a truck driver fromiffin, Ohio, and Bob Morgan a shop worker from Toledo. We all bunk adjacent to each other. We all feel very lucky that we didn't get stuck with infantry. In fact the way they pick a few men out of big bunches for signal corp we feel sort of exclusive. Maybe in another couple weeks I'll be able to tell you exactly what I'm doing. You see ~~we~~ keep taking tests and instruction in lots of different things. Then whatever a fellow has the most aptitude for that's what he gets. at least that's what they say.

We just had a mail call. They have one on Sunday. I suppose it's stuff that comes in late Saturday. I missed the boat tho'. Oh, well I could hardly expect any mail so soon I guess. About the first of the week I'll probably start getting letters.

Honey, do you have enough money?

can afford it. I'll stick to rummy or pinochle. Strictly for the fun of it.

I'm going to try and write to Bill and Dolly today also the boys at Coca Cola. I've received a card and a letter from Genevieve so I'll have to try and write her today too.

It's cool today, but the sun is shining brightly. It rained all nite long. Real Carolina weather. The ground is all sandy around here so the water doesn't stick around long in most spots.

I put on my summer underwear last nite. Tomorrow I'll take my woolies to the laundry. They take $1.50 out of every pay for laundry anyway so I might as well get some-thing out of it.

I have three good Ohio buddies here in the barracks. Jim Kurtz from Cleveland, a Greyhound ticket agent. Trenton Coleman.

If you need any don't forget that's what it's in the bank for, and if that isn't enough cash in some bonds.

I keep thinking of our little place, and how nice it will be when I can come home and enjoy it again with you. I think I've always appreciated my home, but I guess now I really realize how swell it is. Tell me when you write how you're making out on your job. I'll probably be able to write more interesting letters after I really get to doing something. Now it's all drill, classes etc.

Well, darling I'll be staying so long now, with a big hug and lots of kisses for the sweetest little wife in the world.

Your Sweetheart,

Jack

[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE MARCH 1943 – APRIL 1943 #5]

[Page 1 – Envelope]

Pvt. J.P. Bell

Free

78th. Sig. Co. 78th. Div.

[[Image: Military post-mark

Camp Butner, N.C.

stamp, with print text

A.P.O. 78

“CAMP BUTNER / N.C”

encircling date:

“MAR 29 / 3 PM / 1943”]]

Mrs. Jack Bell

345 W. River St.

Elyria, Ohio

[Page 2 – Letter]

March 28, '43
Camp Butner, N.C.

Good Morning Sweetheart,

9 o'clock Sunday morning. Bet
you're still sleeping. We get to sleep
late on Sunday morning. Till 7 o'clock.
Aint [sic] that sompin'?

This has certainly been a busy week.
You could probably tell that by my letters.
I wrote them on the fly. A little here, and
a little there. Today I believe is all mine.

I haven't had any mail yet. I suppose
I'll be getting one from you tomorrow. Will that be nice. I'm going to try and write one every day even if it's just a short one. [[Image: scratched-out word]]

There's a crap game going on in here
already. Has been for about a half hour.
That's sucker stuff. I don't see where any of us fellows – making the money we're making

[Page 3 – Letter continued]

- 3 -

a truck driver from Tiffin, Ohio, and Bob Morgan a shop worker from Toledo. We all bunk adjacent to each other. We all feel very lucky that we didn't get stuck with infantry.

In fact the way they pick a few men out of big bunches for Signal Corp we feel sort of exclusive.

Maybe in another couple weeks I'll be able to tell you exactly what I'm doing. You see we keep taking tests and instruction in lots of different things. Then whatever a fellow has the most aptitude for that's what he gets. At least that's what they say.

We just had a mail call. They have one on Sunday. I suppose it's stuff that comes in late Saturday. I missed the boat tho'. Oh, well I could hardly expect any mail so soon I guess.

About the first of the week I'll probably start getting letters.

Honey, do you have enough money?

- 2 -

can afford it. I'll stick to rummy or pinochle. Strictly for the fun of it.

I'm going to try and write to Bill and Dolly today also the boys at Coca Cola. I've received a card and a letter from Genevieve so I'll have to try and write her today too.

It's cool today, but the sun is shining brightly. It rained all nite long. Real Carolina weather. The ground is all sandy around here so the water doesn't stick around long in most spots.

I put on my summer underwear last nite. Tomorrow I'll take my woolies to the laundry. They take $1.50 out of every pay for laundry anyway so I might as well get some-thing out of it.

I have three good Ohio buddies here in the barracks. Jim Kurtz from Cleveland, a Greyhound ticket agent. Trenton Coleman,

[Page 4 – Letter continued]

- 4 -

If you need any don't forget that's what it's in the bank for, and if that isn't enough cash in some bonds.

I keep thinking of our little place, and how nice it will be when I can come home and enjoy it again with you. I think I've always appreciated my home, but I guess now I really realize how swell it is. Tell me when you write how you're making out on your job. I'll probably be able to write more interesting letters after I really get to doing something. Now it's all drill, classes etc.

Well, darling I'll be saying So Long now, with a big hug and lots of kisses for the sweetest little wife in the world.

Your Sweetheart,

Jack