15th August, 1937.

Dear Temianka,

I have received the following from Judson:-

"I shall watch him with a good deal of interest, and if I think anything can be done, I will take him under management"

Thought you would like to know.

All good wishes,
Yours sincerely,
