About the Authors

Adison Beals

Adison (Addy) Beals graduated from Chapman University in 2019, where she studied History and Anthropology. She edited for Voces Novae all four years and served as President of Phi Alpha Theta her senior year, and worked as both script and costume advisors for historically-grounded films at Dodge College. With an emphasis in the material and cultural history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, she plans to pursue a career in historical consultation for the entertainment industry.

Ben Bruce

Ben Bruce recently graduated from Chapman University, earning Bachelor's degrees in both History and Political Science. While going to school Ben competed on Chapman's football and men's lacrosse teams. He is currently pursuing his Master's in Business Administration from the Argyros School of Business and Economics at Chapman. After he receives his MBA Ben plans to get commissioned as an officer in the United States Navy.

Megan Lee

Megan Lee is a recent graduate from Chapman University where she received Bachelor's degrees in both History and Film Production. She also served as the Historian of Chapman University's chapter of Phi Alpha Theta and as senior editor of Voces Novae. She plans to pursue a Master's degree in Archaeology or Museum Studies in the near future.
