

About the Authors

Joseph Dickinson

Joseph Dickinson is a recent 2020 graduate of Chapman University, where he earned his Bachelor's degree in History and a minor in Secondary Education. At Chapman, Joseph served as both treasurer of the university's chapter of Phi Alpha Theta and as one of the Senior Editors for the 2020 volume of Voces Novae. He plans to return to Chapman in the fall to pursue a Master's in War and Society, and hopes to go into the field of education in the future.

Nathan Huffine

Nathan Huffine graduated in 2020 from Chapman University, where he studied History and Philosophy. He edited for Voces Novae for two years, and served as President of Philosophy Club and Classics Club his senior year. Following graduation, Nathan intends to pursue a teaching credential in social science at San Diego State University.

Robert Kent

Robert Kent graduated from Chapman University in 2020 with a Bachelor's degree in History and a minor in English. He finished his undergraduate program with summa cum laude standing and was awarded 'Most Outstanding Student' in the school's History department. He is a managing editor for Voces Novae and is pursuing a Master's degree in War and Society at Chapman University. After completing the course, Robert plans to apply for naval officer training or attend law school.

Michael MacInnes

Michael MacInnes graduated from Chapman University in 2020 with a B.A. in History and Minor in Political Science. He will be continuing on at Chapman for another year to earn his M.A. War in Society as part of the accelerated 4 + 1 program. Michael was Co-President of Phi Alpha Theta his senior year and worked as an editor for Voces Novae throughout his undergraduate years. He hopes to continue his research into Inkatha and South Africa in his Masters thesis and continue to be involved in African History wherever he ends up beyond graduate school.

Louisa Marshall

Louisa “Lou” Marshall is a 2020 graduate from Chapman University, earning a Bachelor’s degree in History with a minor in political science. While at Chapman, Lou served as the co-President of the Phi Alpha Theta history honors society as well as the Editor-in-Chief of the independent student newspaper, The Panther, establishing herself as a prominent campus leader. Lou resides in Los Angeles, where she currently works as a freelance journalist, furthering the feminist cause through her work. She hopes to go on to receive her Master’s degree in journalism and continue to advocate for progressive causes.

Leana Sottile

Leana Sottile graduated from Chapman University in 2020, where they earned Bachelor’s degrees in History and Television Writing & Production. They also served as the Secretary of Chapman University’s chapter of Phi Alpha Theta and as senior editor of Voces Novae. They are currently pursuing their Master’s in War and Society from Wilkinson College of Arts and Humanities at Chapman University. After they receive their MA, Leana plans to pursue a Ph.D. in Theatre and Performance Studies to become a professor of theatre history.

Minna Thrall

Minna Thrall is a 2020 graduate of Chapman University. She received her Bachelor’s degree in History, with a minor in Business and Entrepreneurship. Minna was born and raised in Minnesota, and moved to Southern California to pursue an education at Chapman in filmmaking. Halfway through her studies, Minna switched her educational focus from film to history, after realizing her love for the endless stories of humanity. Minna plans to continue her education in History and International Business, and hopes to work around the world with nonprofit organizations that combat humanitarian crises.