Dear Mr. Benedict:

In view of the interesting discussion we had in California, I believe you will want to read the enclosed paper. I would be grateful for your advice as to the possibilities of obtaining a Foundation Grant to carry out this program.

I am wondering whether you received my letter some time ago, in which I requested the return of an orange brochure that was among the various materials I gave you. It so happens that the orange brochure was my last copy.

With kindest regards,

Yours cordially,
