

About the Authors

Austin Bryan:

Austin graduated Chapman University as a part of the Class of 2021 where he completed his undergraduate studies with a Bachelor's degree in History. He double minored in English and Sociology and was also a member of the University Honors Program. Austin lives in Colorado and enjoys life in the mountains.

Nicolas Conners:

Nicolas Conners attended Chapman from 2020-2021 and received a BA in History. His scholastic interests lie in the Progressive Era, the City Beautiful movement, and the adoption of nuclear energy. His post-Chapman plans included pursuing an MBA and starting a family

Taylor Kliss:

Taylor graduated in 2021 from Chapman University with honors in her two Bachelor's programs: History and Religious Studies. She also was a member of the University Honors Program. After wrapping up her undergraduate degrees in three years, Taylor will be attending Cal State Long Beach to pursue a Master's in History and will start her studies Fall of 2021.

Nicole Saito:

Nicole is a rising senior triple majoring in Political Science, History, and Economics, and is hoping to add a Mathematics minor this upcoming year. Nicole works as a research assistant in economic history under the Smith Institute for Political Economy and Philosophy, and as an economics and math tutor for the TLC. She currently serves as the president of Kappa Alpha Pi Pre-Law Fraternity. Nicole is the recipient of the Lee Estes Best Senior Thesis Award as well as the Delta Sigma Pi Key Scholarship from the Argyros School of Business and Economics. After graduating, Nicole hopes to attend a PhD program in economics and eventually work as a researcher in economic history and political economy.

Delaynie Voortman:

Delaynie Voortman is a recent Chapman University graduate who obtained her Bachelor's degree in History and minored in Secondary Education. She is one of the Senior Editors for Voces Novae, was the Team Director for Delight Ministries for two years, was a part of the Chapman Equestrian Team and was an active member of a social sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma. She worked for the Office of Admission for all four years at Chapman, serving as the Volunteer Coordinator, an Admission Fellow, and an Office Assistant. She is currently pursuing a Masters in Curriculum and Instruction from Chapman University and will graduate in 2022. After graduation, Delaynie wants to become a high school history teacher.