My Dear Leo:

We were happy and relieved to receive your letter, as we were becoming concerned over the absence of your traditional New Year message. I very much look forward to your visit to the West Coast later this year, and would like to notify some of the universities with which I have contacts, in the hope of being able to help with additional engagements for you. If the timing is right, you could also play in one of my concerts. Herbert Blomstedt and the Swedish Consul here should also be helpful. Please talk to Blomstedt. Attached is a list of universities and colleges in this area. Here is a rough outline of my 1985 schedule, which I am giving you in the hope that we may meet not only in California, but also in Europe:

March 25 - April 1 Portsmouth Chamber Music Competition, preceded by a few days of vacationing in London, and followed by a week in Paris.

September 8 - 18 Paris, Yehudi Menuhin Competition

October 15 - November 15 Temianka Virtuosi Concert Tour of Western United States

Somewhere in between I am trying to sandwich the invitation from China to play the Beethoven Sonata Cycle in Beijing and Shanghai, and to give master classes in both cities.

Congratulations on your exciting activities! Looking forward to more news soon,

Yours always,

Henri
