Dear Leo and Maud,

I am sure that you, Leo, will remember the classical music radio station KFAC from your student days with me in Los Angeles. Since then, under the dynamic leadership of George Fritzinger, it has grown immeasurably, reaching an immense audience on the West Coast. In addition to his prominence in the business world and the cultural community, George and his charming wife Grace are two of the most delightful people you will ever meet.

They will be in Stockholm on May 28, 29 and 30, staying at the Hotel Diplomat. I only learned about this yesterday, when the Fritzingers hosted a party reminiscent of Cleopatra and ancient Rome, by way of inaugurating their lavish new KFAC headquarters. I can only hope that this letter reaches you in time, and know that you will greatly enjoy each others company.

I wish I could be with you on your private island this summer, and participate in your master classes. I thought your brochure was one of the most clever and original promotional pieces I have ever seen.

Emmy joins me in sending you warmest good wishes and greetings.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
