Dear Henri:

Many thanks for your letter from New Zealand, and my apologies for the delay in responding.

The entertainment editor and I have discussed your offer to rewrite the article about the state of music criticism. I am afraid he feels that, unless the whole perspective and tone of the story is altered, it wouldn't work.

Let me ponder it for a while. But please let me know if you have ideas for another kind of counter-attack.

All best,

Martin Bernheimer
