Dear Henri:

My "predawn disappearance" had nothing to do with disillusionment. It was predicated on a previous commitment -- as Grant Beglarian had announced during our first session Friday night.

I am delighted that you felt things ended more positively than they had begun. Curiously, the young people I have spoken to since the conference seem to disagree with you. But the elder spokesmen remain on your team. And so it continues...

I don't know exactly what you mean when you ask for my support. But, in theory, it is, as always, yours.

All best wishes,

Martin Bernheimer
