Dear Mr. Temianka:

Please forgive my delay in answering your gracious letter of the 11th. As you know, the combined opera and ballet seasons have taken their toll on my energies.

I sat in the rear of the hall for "Façade" but heard the second half in the usual press seats. (By the way, I do think the latter are too close to the stage for optimum acoustical pleasures.) The balance seemed to favor the voices in both places.

I hate to decline your invitation for December 6, but my date book tells me I must be elsewhere that evening.
Thanks so much, though, for thinking of us.

All good wishes,

Martin Bernheimer
