Dear Henri,

What a memorable, exciting evening!

The Harvard Club is much indebted to you for a most inspiring speech. I'm sure you could tell, from the nature and depth of the questions, how much impact you had on our gathering. I'm sure too you heard Byron Bentley say that this should be an annual event!

And I'm sure that good will accrue to the California Chamber Symphony as a result of your efforts.

You and Mrs. Temianka were most gracious to give so freely of your time on our behalf. We are all most grateful.

With all good wishes for your continued success, and our best to Mrs. Temianka, I am,

Cordially,

William Clymer Bidlack
President

cc: Byron Bentley, Program Chairman

P. S. We look forward to Friday, April 17 when you, Emmy and the Davises join us at our house for dinner. We will be in touch before then to establish the hour and see that you have directions to get there.
