Dearest Lover,

I guess the mail is getting temperamental again, no letter from my sweeter. I suppose to-morrow I'll get two. To-day I got the notice that my allotment had gone through.

Darling, again I must apologize for this letter. It has to be a short one again. You're going into Cleveland to-night. Franzie Babich is having a shower for Lenie. That's Igzy's girl. Igzy is coming home the end of the week and I suppose they will get married then.

I've got to go downtown and get a gift and come home and take a shower and be ready by 5:30 and it's 4:00 now. Rush, rush, rush!
It seems as though I'm always in a rush. I never have time for anything. Oh well, I'm glad I can keep busy. It makes me think less. Well, sweetie, I feel awful bad about not writing such a short letter, perhaps tomorrow I can write two to make up for it.

I love you, Darling, and I'll be thinking of you all evening (as usual).

Lots of hugs and kisses to my beloved lover.

Your own,

Fink.
