SIR RUDOLF BING

Dec. 9th 72.

My dear Henry,

thank you so much for your letter of the 4th and for your charming and tempting invitation! Not only do I feel honored, but we both would love to see you again and talk about old times. Forgive me, if at this moment I cannot accept; I raced around the country promoting my book - Cleveland, Dallas, Milwaukee, Atlanta, New^Orleans, Chicago etc.etc. all of these trips sandwiched between my rather strenuous teaching assignments and there may ~~be~~ more to come - I am really tired and feel, at this moment, I just cannot face such a long trip, however pleasant it would be. If you can wait until some time after the middle of January, when I will know more about my schedule perhaps you will be good enough to ask me again - but of course I would understand, if you have to make your arrangements now, and cannot wait that long. Perhaps your way will bring you to N.Y. one of these days, when we would be delighted to see you.

All the best from both of us

*Yours
Ludwig*

I have read Henry Temianka's 'Virtuoso'
with great pleasure and interest.
It is a delightful book, extremely well
written and full of amusing and informative stories. Anybody interested in the world of music and concert performers will find this easily readable volume entertaining
and fascinating.

Sir Rudolf Bing.
