SIR RUDOLF BING

Nov. 18th 72.

My dear Henri,

thanks for your letter -it was nice hearing from you;

in the mean time I got the galleys of your book, but I am afraid I simply cannot get to reading it before Christmas or so.

Right now I am wildly busy -two full days a week I am teaching in Brooklyn and the rest of the week I am racing around the country to promote my book. Fortunately it is doing very well, but it is a great strain; I was and am going to Cleveland, Dallas, Atlanta, New Orleans, Chicago, Hartford, Boston etc.etc., busy from morning to night with Interviews, Radio, Receptions and book-signing parties...quite amusing, but as I said, a bit of a strain.

I will read your book, as soon as I possibly can. When is it expected to be published?

Both, Nina and I send you our warmest regards,

Yours
Lund
