Dear Mr. Temianka,

The President-Elect and Committee will esteem it an honour if you will be their guest at the Annual Dinner to be held, as usual, in the Concert Hall of the Club on the evening of Friday, 24th November, and reply to the principal Toast of "Music" which is being proposed by Sir James Colquhoun Irvine, LL.D., Principal of St. Andrew's University.

On telephoning Mr. Barnes' office today I learned that he is on holiday all this month but his assistant informed me that, so far, there is no orchestral engagement for that evening.

We have the happiest recollections of your visit to this function last year and your brilliant and witty reply on behalf of "The Guests" and we look forward with the greatest pleasure to having you with us again.

With kindest regards to Miss Temianka and yourself,

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

D. Kirkpatrick Blair
Secretary.
