Dear Mr. Blum:

I am truly touched by your lovely letter of November 7 just received, and by your splendid book, Casals and the Art of Interpretation. I have long admired your Esterhazy recordings of several Haydn Symphonies, and look forward with great pleasure to meeting you personally.

I have a commitment to be in the New York area from about February 19-23, but should be back in Los Angeles by the 23rd or 24th, and hope we can meet at that time. Please let me know which day would suit you for a luncheon.

With kindest regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
