Mr. & Mrs. Ben Bodne
Algonquin Hotel
59 W. 44
New York, NY

Dear Ben & Mary:

This note is to introduce a dear friend of mine, John Serry, one of the most brilliant young composers in Los Angeles. He is doing me a great favor in picking up the recording which you so kindly kept for me in your storage room these past weeks. Kindly let him take it with him. I know you will enjoy meeting him, and he is looking forward to the great privilege of meeting you and becoming acquainted with the legendary Algonquin Hotel.

Emmy and I are still talking about your warmhearted hospitality while we were with you in New York. We look forward to seeing you again in Los Angeles in October, and to celebrating Mary's special birthday.

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
