Dear Cecil:

It was such a pleasure hearing from you, and I hope that you are in good health and active. All is well with us, and I enclose my most recent article which may amuse you. I have another article which The Strad is supposed to publish in the near future. At present I have no plans for another visit to England. I would really love to see you.

In old friendship and affection, and with every good wish,

Yours cordially,

Henri
