Dearest Darling,

Sunday nite, and my weekend is just about over. It's been a nice one, only I wish I could have talked to you on the phone. I called this morning, but you weren't there, then I called Mom and Dad. I sort of thought you might be over there. Maybe I can catch you home the next time, sweetie.

Last nite we made some chocolate ice cream. It was good too. I get treated so swell when I come over here. It makes me feel like a solid citizen again. Genevieve cooks swell meals for me. It's so nice and restful here.

We just finished supper, allmost a midnite lunch. It's a quarter to ten. There's a bus at 11:30 that gets me back to camp at a quarter to one. We had cold roast pork left from dinner so we had pork and cheese sandwiches, iced tea, jello and home made cake.

Sweetie, have I told you lately how much I love you? Oh, baby I love you so very much. You are always in my heart and thoughts. You're such a darling sweetheart. I have your picture in front of me, you're smiling, and I can allmost hear you say, "Hello darling."

Next week we're going out on the range, that's June 14th. I don't know if we'll camp out there or hike out and back every day. If we stay out there I may not get a chance to mail letters to you.

If I shouldn't, don't worry 'cause you'll probably get three or four the same day. I don't know for sure just how they'll work it so I thought I'd tell you just in case we get stuck out there.

Chuck's picture is sure a swell one. He certainly looks good. Genevieve also has a nice picture of Ricky. He's a cute kid. I wonder if he'll remember me when I come home.

Well, lover I guess I'm as dull as ever. I've run down so I'll send you a great big bear hug and lots of kisses. I love you sweetheart

Your graham cracker boy,

Jack
