Dear Henri:

Thank you for the tape. What a tremendous coincidence running into you in the midst of that awful mob at the Picasso exhibition. As far as we are concerned, I thought we were all having a nervous breakdown at the time. Somehow hysteria and the appreciation of art do not seem to go together. But, at least, we got some view of an extraordinary man's work.

Allow me to wish you the best for the coming season and to tell you again how much I enjoyed working with you.

All the best,
