Dearest lover girl,

This will be a short, end of the day letter to my sweet little wife whom I love so very much. I guess I got all the news in the letter I wrote last nite and this morning in the guard house.

We got thru' at eleven. Between then and now I've caught up on some of my correspondence. I sent the letter into the revenue collector in Cleveland so we won't have to worry about that for the present. One to Mom and Dad, Bill and Dolly, Got a letter from Chuck today so I answered that too. I got the card today you told me about - Thursday on the phone.

Darling, I love you so. You're my everything. What a happy day it will be when I come home to you. You can expect lots of my famous bear hugs, and juicy kisses. Oh, baby I have so much to look forward to. What a thrill it will be to kiss your sweet lips.

Well, baby this is really a short one, but I think I'd better start adding on to the two hours sleep I got last nite so I'll dream you're in my arms. All my love and kisses,

Your graham cracker boy,
Jack
