June 22,

Dearest Sweetheart,

It's grand to-day. We have been having some swelled weather. I'm home to-day and it sure does feel swell. I love to be home in the morning. The house is so nice and cool and its so comfortable.

I want to go to town this afternoon and buy innumerable things. You know, all the little things women have to have. But I shall probably end up by not getting what I need and getting stuff I don't need, that's usually the way it ends up.

Darling, when are you going to get your picture taken? I'm waiting very patiently for it. and I hope its a real good one. as good as Chuck's. But it will be your face and I'll just love it to pieces.

I got the slip about my income top and as close as I can figure I've got to pay about $2.20 a week. You see I earn between $30 to $40 a week and that's what they figure on.

Last night Ida & I went to show and saw "Shadow of a Doubt." It was very good.

Darling, I feel so darn lazy that my mind just don't seem to be able to function.

I have to clean up the house and I have no more ambition than the man in the moon.

Gosh, Honey, I'm so anxious to see you I can hardly wait. I you have any idea yet when you will be home.

I love you so much Darling, but I just can't seem to make my mind get going to write you a decent letter. I'm getting just like you. Every thing around here seems to be the same.

Well, Baby, I'm going to get ready to go downtown so I had better draw this to a close.

All my love and kisses.

your own,

Fink
