June 25,

Hi Sweetie Dear,

and how are you this lovely spring day? (I mean summer).

Boy is there ever a controversy going on around here. The Western want the girl to wear uniforms and the girls dont want to and some of the girls have been sent home already because they arent wearing the right things to work in. If they send me home I'll just forget to come back.
They have too jobs floating to be worrying about one that you cant even wear what you want to God damn as a letter writer I am getting worse + worse every day. I cant seem to think of anything new to write you. Everything goes along in the same hemdrem way. I eat, sleep and work and maybe once in a while I go out in the evening. But if anything important happens then I write and tell you. Without you life seems to just go on sort monotonous. But when I'm with you then good I just busy along. I'm so full of vinegar and pep. Good you are such a sweetie you give me all the pep I'm looking for. now don't get me wrong, I'm getting along fine and I have no worries or troubles and so that's the reason I'm getting kind of stagnant. I have plenty of money (I don't know what to do with it) and I'm happy as I can be expected to be without you. now sweetie, you wouldn't want me to get along too fine with out you would you?

I'm getting lots of new clothes so when you come home you will hardly recognize me. I've got some awfully cute ones. you will like them *

By am I ever hot, the sweat is just pouring down my back and under my arms.

To-night Helen is going to set my hair for me. I've got a new hat and I want to wear my hair page boy. you the curl going this way  instead of this Beautiful drawing but you got the idea dont you?

I love you Darling. I have to say that in every single letter you are such a sweet cutie and a cute sweetie. But as you see I'm getting this letter all wet with my sweaty hands.

all my love to the dearest husband in the world your own Frank.

Gosh Honey as a letter writer I am getting worse + worse every day. I
along in the same humdrum way. I eat, sleep and work and
