Dearest Darling,

I suppose you heard that Chuck had his furlough moved up a bit. I was kind of disappointed because I know how badly you wanted to see him. But maybe he might get moved to some place close to you next time and then you & he can get to-gether. I sure do hope so. But anyway I'm glad for your mother. Because I know how anxious she must be to see him. I don't suppose you could get your furlough changed could you? Oh well, it was more than we could expect anyway having you all home to-gether. As long as you do come home that's the most important thing anyway.

Darling, have I told you lately what a wonderful person you are? Imagine you writing home and cheering me up, Baby. I don't need cheering up I just think about you and I get so cheerful. you my "cheerful little cassell" Don't forget, Sweetheart, I'm home with my friends and I have my own little place and everything around me reminds me of how happy we were and are going to be. As for money, I have plenty, the only trouble is that I don't have time to spend it. Friday is my day off, so I shall go down to the Post office and send you a money order for the $50. Are you sure that is going to be enough. If it's not I can send more. But I'm sending just what you asked me to.

Darling, I love you so much. I'm so happy to think it won't be very long till I'll be in your arms right where I belong. You are such a wonderful lover. I'm so glad you are my husband. Every day in every way I realize more & more how dear you are to me.

I got your cute little card yesterday. and also a letter too. It was mailed

Monday and I ³ got it Tues. not bad was it?

Well, Darling, my mind appears to be a blank from here on — nothing new has happened.

all my love to my own dear sweet husband

your own,
Fink.
