Dearest Darling.

July 31

Well, Sweetie, this is my last day at work and it makes me just a wee bit sad to think I'm leaving the place that fed and clothed me for the past four and a half months not that I didn't earn my money. I sure did. But I'm so tickled that I'm going to be near you. That overshadows any thing else.

I have turned my badge number in.

Sis is coming over to-night so I'm going to take her out. I don't know when we will go but we are going out anyway. Last night Bill + Dolly and Sis + I went out. We went to Heilmann's and had a "back to the farm" chicken dinner and it was really good. Remember when we went there. I think it was last June 23. We went to Akron and then on the way back we went to Heilmann's and had a chicken dinner. I guess that is right isn't it Sweetie? There isn't very much that we missed.

Good money just think in perhaps two weeks I'll be with you again. That sure is a swell feeling. I hope I can get a decent job.

I got your telegram yesterday. I'm glad you arrived home safe & sound.

not that I was worried but I did feel more at ease when I got your wire.

Genevieve came over last night and we went down town and shopped and then we stopped at Phil's. I got some sweet rolls and we saw my Dad and Aunt Celia and so we all took a ride and then we went to the folks house and Genevieve and Phil got to talking and it was 12:30 before we left. And then this morning we came over to your folks and now we are planning to go on a little picnic this afternoon. So I reckon we will have a pretty good time.
Baby, I love you so much and I can hardly wait till I see you. God Doney we will be only about 30 miles from each other. Oh happy day. I'm going to get everything in good order when I leave.
So if + when I do come back there will be no loose ends dangling.

Hell, Sweetie, I guess I run down.
all my love to my own darling husband,
your own
Fink.
