
Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence

CAWL Archives: Second World War

8-5-1943

1943-08-05, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1943-08-05, Jack to Evabel" (1943). Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence. 291.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/291

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Subject Terms

Jack P. Bell; August 5, 1943; World War 1939 1945 United States. Regimental histories 78th Signal Company; World War 1939 1945 United States. Regimental histories 78th Infantry Division; Camp Butner (N.C.); World War 1939 1945 United States. Army--Barracks and quarters; War and civilization -- History -- 20th century. United States.; Nineteen Forties; World War 1939 1945 United States. Soldiers; World War 1939 1945 United States. War work;

Keywords

U.S.A.; U.S. Soldiers; correspondence; Infantry; postal service; postal stamp; training; barracks; romance; wife; husband; homesickness; Ohio; post-war plans; recreation and entertainment; money; funds; education; Kitchen Police; hot weather;

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1943-08-05_017

Copyright

The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

Pvt. J. P. Bell A. S. N. 35540340
78th. Sig. Co. A. P. O. 78
Camp Butner, N. C.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

August 5, 1943

Dearest sweetheart,

I've just finished reading your letter for the severalth time. You write such swell ones. Of course I won't miss your letters one bit when you're down here, and we can say things to each other. It will be so wonderful to be together, darling. Don't worry about taking money from the bank, sweetie. Take all you need, because that's what we've saved it for. I'd hate to think of you being broke, and us with plenty in the bank. That stuff is only good for what it will do for you, not for what it is.

I'm glad everyone had such a good time on the picnic Sunday. We always used to have good times on picnics, and will have more too, when this mess is all over.

Looks like you'll save lots of money on phone bills by coming down here, darling. I was getting expensive for a while, wasn't I?

Please excuse me for not writing yesterday, honey. I was on K.P. and by the time we got finished around 9 o'clock all I had energy for was to take a shower, and crawl into bed. So many fellows being on furloughs must have speeded up our turn a little. I'd rather work it on a week day than Sunday tho'.

Has it been hot at home the last few days? It's decided to be summer here again. We have a better setup for classes now tho'. We take code outside. We haul tables and chairs out under the trees, and run a loud speaker out there. This afternoon we set up a radio net, and got a little practical experience so that makes it more interesting too.

Well lover, I can't think of any more gab so I'll say so long to the sweetest, bestest, darlinest and cutest little wife in the whole wide world. I love you, darling Fink,

Your Own,
Jack

[[Nick Dante 11/10/15]]

[[Bell Correspondence #17]]

[[Page 1-Envelope]]

Free

Pvt. J. P. Bell A.S. N. 35540340
78th. Sig. Co. A.P.O. 78
Camp Butner, N. C.

[[image- black stamp: CAMP BUTNER N. C.
AUG 6 11 AM 1943]]

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

[[Page 2-Letter]]

August 5, 1943

Dearest sweetheart,

I've just finished reading your letter for the severalth time. You write such swell ones. Of course I wont miss your letters one bit when you're down here, and we can say things to each other. It will be so wonderful to be together, darling. Don't worry about taking money from the bank, sweetie. Take all you need because that's what we've saved it for. I'd hate to think of you being broke, and us with plenty in the bank. That stuff is only good for what it will do for you, not for what it is.

I'm glad everyone had such a good time on the picnic Sunday. We allways used to have good times on picnics, and we'll have more too, when this mess is all over.

Looks like you'll save lots of money on phone bills by coming down here, darling. I was getting expensive for a while, wasn't I?

Please excuse me for not writing yesterday, honey. I was on K.P. and by the time we got finished around 9 o'clock all I had energy for was to take a shower, and crawl into bed. So many fellows being on furlough must have speeded up our turn a little. I'd rather work it on a week day than Sunday tho'.

Has it been hot at home the last few days? It's decided to be summer here again. We have a better setup for classes now tho'. We take code outside. We haul tables and chairs out under the trees, and run a loud speaker out there. This afternoon we set up a radio net, and got a little practical experience so that makes it more interesting too.

Well lover, I can't think of anymore gab so I'll say so long to the sweetest, bestest, darlingest and cutest little wife in the whole wide world. I love you, darling Fink,

Your Own,

[[underline]] Jack [[/underline]]