Dearest Sweetheart,

It does seem funny to be writing to you when you are so close but I want you to know I'm thinking of you all the time.

I was over to Genevieve's to-day and we did our washing to-gether. and do you know what, we were washing my green dress out and I was running it through the wringer and I could feel something bulky in the pocket and when I looked, what do think it was, a dollar bill. I can't think how it got there but it didn't hurt it any. I just dried it out and it is as good as new.

Mon night I went over to Norwicks for supper and they had kosher wieners and I love them and then we went to the show and saw "Du Barry was a lady." It was pretty good but not as good as I expected. and then we stopped at the Capital Cafe and drank coffee and I didn't get home till about a quarter to one. Yesterday (Tues) Genevieve & I got the ingenious idea that it was about time to send Chuck's Christmas box, so we went shopping and here's what we put into it: 2 decks of cards, 1 game of dominos, shaving soap, tooth brush, 2 bars soap, 1 package tea, 3 comic books, handkerchiefs, wash cloths, hard candy, ^{a pocket comb with a case} 5 packs of razor blades and one stick of gum for the censor. What do you think of that? and it came to just 5 pounds. I'll put Christmas stickers all over every thing and put little Christmas tags from everyone. I hope it brings him as much joy when he gets it as it brought us when we were packing it. and it only cost 24¢ to send it too. I'll had to buy a wooden box to put it in.

Darling, I love you so much and I hope you don't think I'm too much of a meanie when sometimes I don't feel like doing any thing when you do or I don't like to tease you, but even though I am cruel, in my own way I love you. I look at your picture and it looks just like you are saying "you are such a sweetie." and I look at you and say the same thing.

I finally finished up the chicken to-night. I sure did get good milage out of it didn't I? I've got three kinds of jillies in the house now. apple, Grape and Blackberry jam. So you will have a variety when you come home.

We are going to go to the library this evening so perhaps I can get this mailed to-night.

I love you baby and miss you and I'm looking forward to seeing you as soon as possible your own,

Fink.
