Dearest Sweetheart,

I recieved your letter to-day and I was so glad that you took time to write me. It made me feel a lot better when I got your letter. I'm so sorry you won't be able to be in over the weekend but that's the army for you. You have to take but you don't have to like it.

I'm writing this in bed. I have just come from the picture show with Mrs Turner. and I was going to go to bed and then I thought I would write my little sweetie a letter. We saw "Heaven can wait" and it was good.

I stayed home all day to-day and cleaned the place up real good. I scrubbed it from stem to gudgeon (is that right) I thought if you were coming in I wanted the place to look nice, and then I got your letter this afternoon. Oh well, I was sort of expecting that you couldn't make it so I don't feel so terrible bad.

I want to wash my hair and maybe Sun if I stay home I shall be able to do it or maybe Sat. I won't be going any place any way. And my hair certainly is dirty. And it always looks nice when it is freshly washed.

Good, Sweetie, imagine it will be two weeks that we won't see each other. What a wonderful time we will have to-gether, when you come in. I love you so much and it will be so <sup>2,</sup> wonderful to be in your arms again. you hold me real tight, Darling and just love me to pieces and I will be just thrilled.

Well, Baby, I'm getting sleepy so I shall go to bed and dream of my own sweet little graham cracker, biscuit
making, potatoe peeling, sweetie,

your own,
Frank
