Darling Fink,

Something must have gone haywire with our mail service out here. I haven't had a letter from my baby since ~~Sunday~~ Sunday. Oh, well I'll probably get one or two tomorrow.

It's warmed up nice here the last couple days for which I'm thankful. You know, honey if we could get passes two or three nites a week, and every weekend I'd just as soon stay outdoors all the time, as long as it would be warm. It's much better out here than in camp. As long as it's not tactical we can have a fire, and there's plenty of dead wood around here to feed it. They had a movie last nite. I didn't go 'cause I thought I'd seen it, but I guess I hadn't. It was, "The Housekeepers Daughter."

Yesterday afternoon —
Wed. Oct. 20

Back again, sweetie, I got busy yesterday, and had to quit writing.

It looks like my mail must be going to radio or something. Still no letter. Well maybe tomorrow.

I have to go to a class this afternoon so I'll cut this short. All my love to my darling wife whom I love so very very much.

Your Own,
Jack
