Dearest Darling,

Well another day has gone, that means one less day of waiting. Just imagine, Baby, only four more days till I see my sweetie.

I have enough points put away to get you a nice juicy fat steak for Sunday.

I didn't do much of any thing to-day. I went down town and saw F. Brenda Bailey. Did a little shopping.

I got a letter from my lover to-day. Darling I love you so much. I guess I'd like you are. I can never think of any thing to say except I love you. But that is important isn't it?

To-day was warmer outside, and I just had a fire going for a little while this morning. And then I opened the doors and it was nice and warm.

Yesterday I was up to the ration board and I went to the Court House and we helped to get the number 4 Ration books ready. They had about 30,000 of them. You should see them they sure are a funny looking bunch of books. They have pictures of things in them. A head of wheat, a tank, a horn of plenty and the hand holding the light and a spare tire. Pretty cute huh?

I wonder why your Uncle Ben & Aunt Lou sent you a Christmas Card so early? Did they think you are over seas or what? Or maybe they wanted to make sure we would send them one-huh?

Have you heard from your mother? I haven't gotten any <sup>2</sup> mail from her for the longest time. I wrote to her quite a while before I moved too.

Darling, I just wanted to tell you, in case you are looking for your little brush from your razor, you left it here. I found it on the floor the Monday after you left. I wanted to tell you right away but I kept forgetting about it.

Baby dear, you are such a sweet husband, and I love you so much, and I'm so glad that I married you. Of all the men in the world I seemed to have gotten the best one. Even when you pester me and I get mad I still think you are tops and really and truly down deep in my heart I'd probably be mad if you didn't. Any way I can't think of anyone I would rather have pester me than you.

Genevieve and I are going to wash to-morrow so I hope it is a nice day. It would have <sup>been</sup> swell to wash today, it was just grand out.

Well, Darling, I guess I'd better hit the hay now.

all my love, your own,

Fink.
