Dear Evabel and Jack,

Received your letter and it sure was good to hear from you. I hope you both are well, we are all fine here.

Shelly was just thrilled with the picture you sent and thank you very much.

Pat and Aunt Celia were very and they received your letter and they are both well, Aunt Celia is getting ready for the engagement, she and Lem Brunner are going I guess I will go also, they went me to go but it came comes out at a late date. I hate to have Shelly miss school.
we have had some awful weather here. It rained, snowed, etc. I sure hate to think that winter is here.
Do you think you both will be home for Xmas. It sure would be swell.

I saw Bessie on the bus. The other side of she thinks.
Joyce will be sent across. Olive rented one her house, moved into an apt., upstairs her mother.

I bet that must be
new some fine, was it
located far from where you both are.

Yes, Aunt Celia said that she might know them as she was in business in Balt. I'm writing for your aunt Celia also as this will be a family letter.

You sure made lots of friends in N.C. The people must be very friendly by the way. Say hello to Jack's sister. Tell his family from me all.

Dolly called me and told me she was up to the house.
where you live & she found your telephone bill in the mail box so I'll take it and pay your bill here & was waiting for you to send
the bill.

Do they have a lot
of Jewish people in Henderson (don't mind me if I jump from one subject to another that's me)
and do they have a Temple There about how large is it?

we played a little cards
but I had no luck I'll have to get some of your luck Evabel
In how about sending me some luck.

I shall finish this letter to morrow as I'm going to take a shower & go to bed.

well Jack I'm learning from you to start one day on a letter & finish the next to ask aid, maybe I'll be able to think up some more gossip by morning, don't ask me what I did during the nite — good nite for now — P.S. Ben is going to write more

Good morning folks it's 7:36 and here I am again, we have snow outside this morning, Shelly is washing & getting ready for school
Well, I guess he wouldn't if the news from here isn't (I think you must have slept too good) that I know as well as close with just regards to you both and the rest from all of us here.

Let us hear from you soon.

Dear Evabel & Jack,

Received your letter and it sure was good to hear from you & to know you both are well, we are all fine here.

Shelly was just thrilled with the insignia you sent and thank you very much.

Pa & Aunt Celia were over and they received your letter and they are both well, Aunt Celia is getting ready for the engagement, she & [[uncle?]] Brenner are going I guess
Pa will go also, they want me to go but it sure comes out at a late date & hate to have Shelly miss school. We sure had some awful weather here it rained, snowed & etc., I sure hate to think that winter is here. Do you think you both well be home for Xmas, it sure would be swell.

I saw Bessie on the bus the other nite & she thinks Loyd will be sent across. Olive rented out her house & moved into an apt., up stairs of her mother. I bet that must of been some fire, was it located far from where you both are.

Oh yes Aunt Celia said that she might know the, as she was in business in Balt., I’m writing for Pa & Aunt Celia also so this will be a family letter.

You sure made lots of friends in N.C. The people must be very friendly, by the way say hello to Jack’s sister & her Family from us all.

Dolly called me & told me she was up to the house Where you live & she found your telephone bill in the mail box so I’ll take it and pay your bill here I was waiting for you to send
the bill.

Do they have a lot
of Jewish people in Henderson (don’t mind me if I jump from one

and do they have a Temple
there about how large is it?

We played a little cards
but I had no luck I’ll have to
get some of your luck Evabel eh how about sending me some luck.
to morrow as I’m going to take a shower & go to bed.

Well Jack I’m learning from you to start one day on a letter & finish the nest eh kid; maybe I’ll be able to [[think?]] up some more gossip by morning. don’t ask me what I did during the nite--? Good nite for now- P.S. Ben is going to write now

Good morning folks its 7:30 and here I am again, we have snow out side this morning, Shelly is washing and getting ready for school
Well I guess I’ve written all of the news from here, (can’t think must of slept to good) That I know so will close with best regards to you both & the rest from all of us here.
