Dearest Sweetheart,

This will be a Shorty Bell letter, honey as the problem becomes tactical in a about a half hour, and I'll have to get it mailed before that.

I'm enclosing a letter I got yesterday from Mrs. Bara. I thought you'd like to read it too.

I worked from midnite till six this morning so if they don't pull a move on us or something I'll try to catch a little shut eye this afternoon. I took a nice little ride up to Corp headquarter yesterday afternoon. It's at Chester S.C. about 66 miles round trip. We have to keep our tops and windshield down on the jeep - reminds me a lot of our little roadster.

Guess who I love, sweetie? That's right. I can't keep any secrets from my little honey can I? You're my cute sweetie, and my sweet cutie.

I'll cut this short darling, and try to write a better one next time. All my love to my darling wife,

Yours own,
Jack
