Mr. Henri Temianka

Dear Henri:

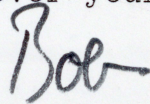

I have been on the road most of the past month and have returned to find your kind letter and inspiring writing. (As for mine, I have apparently killed the San Francisco Chronicle, with the result that I no longer appear north or south.)

Although you are inspiring, your environment is not. I strongly recommend that you bring Emmy to Santa Barbara.

That is good news about Dan. Your whole family is a credit to you.

We send you our love. It is good to know that you are flourishing.

As ever yours,
