Dear Mr. Temianka:

We have rented a house in that part of Connecticut referred to by Keats in his remarks on first looking into Chapman's Homer. We are going to be silent (kinda) on a peak, etc. You must see it. Any time after August 1 would be fine.

Meanwhile, we are grateful for your kind words. We think of you often, and with deep affection. Our love to you both.

Ever yours,

Robert M. Hutchins
