Dearest Darling.

I'm writing at the Norwich. We just came from Raleigh and Durham. Mrs Norwich called me up this morning and asked me if I would like to go. I didn't have to work. So I said I'd love to go. and I had a real nice time. We went to the Duke university. and saw the Cathedral. and the libraries and numerous other buildings and it was very interesting. And then we went to Raleigh. I really enjoyed myself. It sure was swell of them to invite me. Frank came in over the weekend and he came in 6 hours late ^{back to camp.} But I guess it it was worth it to him.

Darling, it has been so long since I have seen you and I do wish the time would hurry up and pass to have you back with me. Last night we went over to some Couples house and everyone played cards but me. I sat and sewed on my towels. I didn't feel like playing.

Mr Nowick was playing and him and Lee were betting on high spade but the poor guy never won a pot or the high spade either.

Gosh I owe everyone letters and I had better get busy and start pretty soon. But it seems as though I'm always running around like that proverbial button.

Monday night I was over to Genevieve's and she cut her hair and honestly it looked bad before but now it looks even worse. She is so swell to me I hate to say anything to her.

Well, Sweetie, I see the bottom coming up to meet me. I love you, Darling, and I'm sending you lots of kisses & all my love your own - Fisk
