Dear Emmy and Henri:

I have now recovered sufficiently from my birthday to thank you for your beautiful card.

But I must say, you have no idea what it is like to be 68!

In order to cheer myself up I have decided to go to the movies every night. Senior citizens are admitted at reduced rates.

The Los Angeles Times ain't sayin' nothin'. They have not printed the last three columns, which I suppose indicates that they have dropped the column permanently. The Syndicate manager has left town. There is talk of reorganization of the editorial pages.

Let's give another cheer for Ronald Reagan!

As ever yours,

Robert M. Hutchins
