Dear Henri:

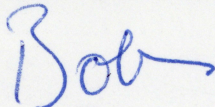

I was delighted to get your letter from Amsterdam and to learn that you and Emmy and all the family have been having a grand time. You deserve it.

I also got what I deserved. Vesta and I spent August in Houston where I had a tremendous operation in the Anderson Tumor Research Institute. Don't come anywhere near me, or I'll tell you all about it.

My operation did Vesta no good. The result is that we are both in fairly low health and spirits. I only wish we could get ourselves in a good enough shape so that we could get together with you.

We send our love to you and Emmy and hope our next reunion will be at an early date.

As ever yours,

Robert M. Hutchins
