Dear Henri:

I want to tell you again how grateful Vesta and I are to you and Emmy for your generosity at Christmas and for your kindness in coming to Barbara's performances. If Vesta and I do not turn out to be the greatest Renaissance musicians since the Renaissance, it will not be your fault. The books tell us all we need to know.

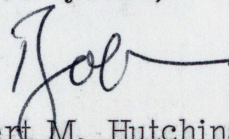

And having your record makes us want to hurry up and get our house built so that we can drag our stereophonic phonograph out of the barn.

I consider you very public-spirited to have made two trips to Santa Barbara to attend a debutante ball and a tea dance. Such courage and vitality are seldom met with these days.

I did not get much impression of your conversation with Mr. Gould. If anything happened that I can follow up, please let me know.

In the meantime, we send you our love and our very best wishes for the New Year.

As ever yours,

Robert M. Hutchins
President
